IELTS general writing task 1 vocabulary for informal letters Hello / Hi name / Hi there I was wondering if you could help me. I'm sorry to tell you that I should let you know that I hope you're well It's been ages since I've heard from you Lots of love Thanks very much A letter to inform is used whenever the sender (you) would like to inform the receiver of some information. The information you wish to convey could be related to just about anything. Below is a list of topics or concepts your letter may cover- Inform about a death/ engagement/ wedding/ special life event- Inform about an acceptance or rejection of application- Inform about the receipt of a document or package- Inform about a current event The purpose of an "inform" letter is to make sure that whatever important news the receiver has to get is clear and articulate. You want to ensure that your letter has a structure. This would include your introduction, your body and ultimately your conclusion. The introduction- here you want to set up the conversation of the letter. This can include a greeting, an enquiry about how the receiver is doing and then depending on how well you know the receiver a brief introduction of who you are. Example: Letter to inform about an upcoming wedding Sample introduction: Hi Emily, This is Jill, we met at the art exhibition last year. I hope this email finds you well. The body - Once the introduction is complete you need to write the reason for your "inform letter". Sample Body: Jack and I engaged! I would love it so very much if you could make it to our wedding. You played a huge role in us getting together and it only makes sense that you are part of the big day. The conclusion - this section is where you close your letter. You can make any final requests or list any final requirements Sample conclusion: By the way, I lost all my contacts as my phone was stolen. This is my new number 123 456 789. I look forward to hearing back from you.
